Why We Are Here Today...

Who We Are...

- Tigers Trust is more than a charity it's a lifeline to so many people in Hull and the East Riding.
- We work with over 45,000 people every year across Hull and East Yorkshire.
- From young people facing barriers to employment, to families struggling with isolation, we're there on the ground, every day.

Why It Matters...

- 1 in 3 children in Hull live in poverty - among the highest rates in the country.
- 1 in 5 households in Hull experience food insecurity, struggling to afford basic nutrition.
- Mental health referrals among young people in Hull have risen by over 40% in the last 3 years.
- Life expectancy in Hull is nearly 5 years lower than the national average for men, and 4 years lower for women.
- Hull ranks in the bottom 10% nationally for educational attainment at GCSE level.
